NEW YORK CITY

N. A. D.

The Local Convention Committee of the N. A. D. will occupy headquarters at the Hotel Pennsylvania on and after Monday, July 16th.

"Guides," interpreters, sub-committees and others wishing to confer with regard to convention details, will please meet Mr. Kenner or any of his aides in Conference Room No. 3, specially reserved for our use, on any evening, 8 P.M., on and after July 16th.

Splendid progress is being made in arranging for the Monster Frat Smoker, July 27th, at Mecca Temple Casino, 135 West 55th Street, New York City. The entertainment, eats, drinks, and smokes have all been signed up; candidates for initiation are being prepared for their part in the ritual work, and tickets are going fast. The committee in charge has been greatly encouraged by two recent donations besides those previously acknowledged: the Local N. A. D. Convention Committee has given one hundred dollars, and Bronx Division, No. 92, fifteen dollars. The Smoker promises to be decidedly a success. See our adv. on another page.

Additional names of those coming to Convention: Mr. A. Chicoine, Montreal, Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lynch, Detroit, Michigan. Loraine Warren, Kernersville, North Carolina. J. V. Glover, New Brookland, South Carolina. Celestine Sauvageau and Nellie Burke, of Providence, R. I.

HOOT! HOOT!

The New York Owls are preparing a nice roost on Friday, the 27th, for all the Owls who visit the N. A. D. Convention in New York City this month. They promise plenty of succulent birds, rats, etc.! Will visiting Owls please notify Mrs. Harry A. Gillen, of 525 DuBois Avenue, Valley Stream, N. Y., of their intention to come? So that a roost long enough to accommodate everyone can be reserved beforehand.

B. H. S. D.

On Sunday morning, July 15th, 1934, at about eight o'clock, the Brooklyn Hebrew Society of the Deaf, Inc., will have a bus outing from the Hebrew Educational Society Building, Hopkinson and Sutter Avenues, Brooklyn, N. Y., to Heckscher Park, L. I. There will be an indoor baseball game between the Deaf-Mutes' Union League and Margraf Club and other games. Tickets are $1.25 for adults; 60 cents, children 6 to 12. Those desiring to reserve tickets for the bus, should inform William Starr, 367 Miller Avenue, Brooklyn, or phone Mrs. Irving Blumenthal, Applegate 7-3482, before Friday, July 13th, 1934, or Saturday morning.

About seventy-five persons went to Indian Point on the Hudson Line boat on June 30th, under the auspices of the Fanwood Alumni Association and the Knights and Ladies of De l'Epee Society. The weather being too hot, caused many to swarm into different places, some going to the beer garden, while others took shelter under the trees, and still more to the swimming pool. Later more than twenty other persons arrived there via auto, some from New York City, Peekskill, Beacon and Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

The games that were arranged by the committee of the Fanwood Alumni Association were given up, as the scattering of the visitors made it impossible to locate them when it was time for the games.

Mr. Roy Haynes, a teacher of boys' trades at the West Virginia School for the Deaf, Newport News, Va., was a special guest at the closing meeting of the Loyalty Social Club (colored) last week, at the home of its president, Mrs. Annie Haynes, in New York.

A graduation party was tendered to Bessie Hillery, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hillery, at their residence at Newark, N. J., June 26th. Miss Hillery is a graduate of the Newark School for the Deaf, and is a member of the Loyalty Social Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Katz and Mr. and Mrs. George Oberbeck, of Plainfield, N. J., motored down to Lakewood, N. J., and visited Mr. and Mrs. Philip Katz's friend, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have a nice farm of one acre. The Katzes had a wonderful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Osmond Loew sailed on Friday, July 6th, on the Grace Line steamer, "Santa Lucia," for an extended visit in California.

Mr. Morris K. Parrott, of Tulsa, Okla., was in town last week and remained several days.

Conference of Church Workers

THE CALL

The Eighteenth Triennial Conference of Church Workers Among the Deaf in the United States is hereby called to meet in St. Ann's Church for the Deaf, 148th Street, near Amsterdam Avenue, New York, N. Y., on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 19th, 20th, 21st, 1934.

The opening service on Thursday, July 19th, at 8 P.M., will be followed by a reception to which the public is cordially invited. The Rev. Guilbert C. Braddock, of New York; the Rev. Henry J. Pulver, of Philadelphia; and Dr. Edwin Nies, of Riverdale, N. Y., will act as a Committee on Program.

At 8:15 P.M., moving pictures will be shown in the Auditorium, featuring several reels taken of St. Ann's Church activities. Members of the Conference admitted free.

SATURDAY, JULY 21ST

At 9 A.M., Morning Prayer in the chapel. At 9:30 A.M., business sessions resumed. Discussion of missionary work among the deaf. Election of officers. Group photograph of the Conference at noon.

If any business remains to be transacted, an extra session will be held in the afternoon of that day. Otherwise, the adjournment will be made at noon, and the afternoon given to sightseeing or a visit to the beach.

PHILADELPHIA

News items for this column should be sent to Howard S. Ferguson, 250 W. Sparks St., Olney, Philadelphia, Pa.

The annual picnic at Hershey Park, held this year on June 24th, drew about half of the deaf population of Philly to it. A chartered bus, filled to capacity, left All Souls' while a big truck that resembled a can of sardines, the way the people were packed in, left Broad and Erie, both designated for Hershey. But that wasn't all! About every deaf auto driver, with all available seats taken up, motored there too. It wouldn't surprise me if some even thumbed their way up. Reports brought back by the picnickers state that an enjoyable time was had by all.

Some of those that didn't go up to Hershey enjoyed themselves in various other ways. A group consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis O'Donnell, Misses Ida O'Dea and Rose Schenkel and Messrs. James Jennings, John Stanton and Harry Miller, hied themselves to Valley Green, where they had a picnic of their own. They rode on the trolley up to the Mt. Airy school and then hiked over the same route they used to take on Sundays while they were all pupils up at the school. Another group, composed of Jewish deaf, cooled off at Woodside Park in the modern swimming pool recently erected there.

Ye scribe stayed at home and helped celebrate his eighth wedding anniversary with the missus. Anyhow, he has a nice coat of tan to show for his troubles.

The Dart League has shut down for the summer months. Monday, June 18th, saw the play-offs. Morris, second-half champs, defeated Wisso, first-half champs, two out of three games. For runner-up laurels, Wingo took two straight from Wisso. Out of sympathy for Wisso, it must be stated that they were without the service of the dead-shot of the league, Finis Reneau. Many of the players' wives and sweethearts and friends were present to see these final games. If enough members are back for next year, the League will probably start again some time after Labor Day.

The Kings, of West Philly, were pleasantly surprised with a party in honor of their thirteenth wedding anniversary, on Friday, June 22d. As a coincidence, thirteen guests showed up and helped Mr. and Mrs. Hank stow away the refreshments that were brought along.

Little Ellen Cusack had a birthday party on Wednesday, the 20th. Children from the neighborhood were present with gifts for Ellen, who is now five years old.

Keep your eyes open, folks, and you will see the Armors, of Upper Darby, driving about town in their swanky new automobile. It is a two-door coach Oldsmobile, 1934 model. They traded their old car, a 1931 Buick, for it.

About twenty deaf fight fans were treated to the spectacle of seeing Frank Mela, one of Philadelphia's promising 135-pound deaf-mute boxers, knock out his colored opponent in the first round at an open-air amateur show in Olney on June 29th. Frank, who should bear watching—so the Philadelphia papers say—has been fighting in amateur tourneys for over a year, and in the Golden Gloves Tourney, Philly's big amateur show, Frank managed to reach the semi-final round and then lost on points that were questionable, thus missing the finals.

Philadelphia Division, No. 30,

N. F. S. D., is now laying plans for its twenty-fifth anniversary banquet. Though it is a long way off, not taking place until some time in October, 1935, they have gone ahead with the formation of a committee, consisting of John A. Roach, chairman; James Jennings, Sylvan Stern, E. Arthur Kier and Lloyd Armor, with one or two additions later to be picked. Your correspondent has been told that at their first meeting recently, plans were laid that when it is announced, it will startle you with its vastness and elaborateness. Watch these columns.

John Stanton has recently moved from Olney up to Mt. Airy, the address being 66 N. Boyer Street. John, who was very popular with the deaf and hearing people of the Olney section, will be sorely missed. As a farewell tribute, he gathered a lot of his friends, both hearing and deaf, and treated them to a farewell party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tosti, of Olney. But his friends came right back and presented him with many various and useful gifts, in honor of his natal day, which recently passed.

Cleveland, Ohio

Martin Maynard, a steady night employee of the Sherwin Williams Paint Co., is spending his vacation with pay this week in Michigan, perhaps preparing himself with big fish stories.

Prof. Max N. Marcossou, a head teacher of Kentucky School for the Deaf, arrived on June 8th, to spend his summer vacation at his camp at No. 6 Surrey Street, Euclid Beach, and also to take six weeks' course at Teachers' College on the Western University grounds.

Robert C. Hemstreet has been gradually recovering from plenty of bruises and cuts, with many stitches, especially on his head, caused by an auto collision at Perry, Ohio.

The Young People Club, which meets every Tuesday evening at Garfield House, had a most pleasant hike to Whinnies Ledge at Hincley, one of many worth-seeing spots in the metropolitan parks one Sunday recently. Most of the members are alumni of the Graham Bell School for the Deaf and a few deaf graduates of the hearing high school and Case College. The club president is Dentist Raybin.

Joseph Swartz, being laid off from a car shop in Michigan last June, has left for home in Pennsylvania, after a visit with his sisters in the city.

Virgie Ashcraft and Mrs. Horace Waters were seen off on the same day to take bus rides home. Virgie spends her forced vacation visiting her folks in West Virginia, after having worked almost steadily six years for a large clothing company in Cleveland.

Rev. Robert Borchardt, a Lutheran missionary to the deaf of Ohio and Pennsylvania, left in his new Plymouth sedan with his wife and son last week, to spend a vacation at his old home in Wisconsin.

Robert Hemstreet's sons, Marshall and Theodore, are married and try their separate businesses in Pennsylvania. Marshall married Isabelle Griffis, a two-year teacher, on May 28th, 1934. Theodore married Hazel Brine, June 14th. They plan a honeymoon journey to New York, taking Ted's parents along during the week of the N. A. D. Convention.

H.

Miss P. E. Burchard, of Oxford, N. Y., was the week-end guest of Mrs. Ella R. McClelland, of Mountain View, N. J.

Empire State Gleanings

The numerous friends of Arthur North, of Rochester, who suffered a severe heart attack some time ago, will be glad to know that he is back home from the hospital and is getting well fast. It is thought that he will be practically as good as new in a few more weeks.

On June 9th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Weil in Buffalo, Agnes Lydia Palmgren became the bride of Frank W. Messenger; the Rev. Herbert C. Merrill, of Syracuse, officiating. The home was crowded with a few of the many friends of the couple, who were the recipients of numerous gifts with which to help furnish their new home, an attractive apartment at 271 Cambridge Avenue, Buffalo.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lessley, from Denver, are residing in Rochester for the time being. Mr. Lessley is working at the plant of the Todd Protograph Company, on a device he designed. The concern is one of the best-known manufacturers of check-protecting devices.

The alumni and former students of the Rochester and Rome schools had a well-attended and enjoyable reunion at their respective schools on June 16th-17th. It could be wished that the various school alumni organizations in the State, those of Fanwood, Buffalo, Malone, Rome, Lexington Avenue and Rochester schools, be able to find a way to co-operate for the advancement of the deaf generally, rather than just get together at intervals to have a good time.

After several preliminary meetings, the Capital District Association of the Deaf had a general meeting in Albany, the evening of May 19th, with an encouraging attendance. Speeches were made by Dr. E. M. Freund, a specialist, who has, by reason of his own impaired hearing, become interested in the deaf; Hon. Harold Armstrong, a member of the State Legislature from Schenectady; Rev. H. C. Merrill, of Syracuse; Miss G. Emerson, teacher of the deaf class in the Albany public schools, and others. Mrs. Ragotzkie, daughter of deaf parents, interpreted.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Harry Barnes, President; Howard Bedell, first vice-president; Mrs. William Wall, second vice-president; William Lange, Jr., secretary-treasurer; with Tom Sack, C. A. Boxley, Mrs. Lewis Ray, Mrs. John Lyman, and Earl Calkins as additional members of the Board.

The new organization will probably affiliate with the National Association of the Deaf in promoting the interests of the deaf in the State. The success of the movement so far has been mostly due to the energy and resourcefulness of Tom Sack, of Schenectady, and William "Bill" Lange, of Albany. At a subsequent Board meeting, Rev. H. C. Merrill and Assemblyman Armstrong were elected honorary members of the Association.

William M. Lange, Jr., of Albany, a 1933 graduate of Gallaudet College, hid himself down to Washington early in June to attend the commencement exercises of the college, and incidentally (?) to take unto himself a wife in the person of Miss Isobel V. Swope, of Pennsylvania, one of the graduating class. At 7 o'clock in the evening of June 12th, in the Church of the Good Shepherd, the marriage of Mr. Lange and Miss Swope was solemnized by the Rev. Herbert C. Merrill, of Syracuse, N. Y., in the presence of a congregation that filled the church, including most of the graduating class, the undergraduates, and practically the entire faculty of the college.

The newlyweds were the guests of honor at the 1934 class banquet that evening, afterwards leaving on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Toronto and other places. They are now happily domiciled in an apartment on Dove Street—quite an appropriate address, isn't it?—Albany. Mr. Lange assists his father in his pharmacy, having specialized in chemistry while at college, and will presumably become a registered pharmacist in time.

Saturday afternoon, June 23d, in the Cathedral of All Saints, Albany, Rev. H. C. Merrill, the missionary to the deaf, presented Beatrice Pratt Carpenter, Isobel Swope Lange, William M. Lange, Charles F. Mull, Leslie W. Ramsdell and Milton A. Robertson to the Rt. Rev. George Ashton Oldham, Bishop of Albany, for the Apostolic rite of Confirmation. The Bishop made an inspiring address to the candidates, the same being interpreted by Mrs. Ragotzkie. All of those confirmed received their first communion the next morning.

At the annual Girl Scout Council in Rome, May 26th, a dozen or more of the girls of the Central New York School for the Deaf received awards and certificates. Pearl McWilliams was made a First Class Girl Scout, and Jennie Woodcock, Doris Schaub, Emma Caruso, Mary Ciemente, Angelina Mastro, Evelyn Tedesco, Rose Nuciforo, Norma Santola, Edith Thompson, Elizabeth Van Patten, Agnes Wilson, and Rose Coriale received gold stars for perfect attendance.

As a result of complications following a serious major operation, George Lassiter Stewart, of Onedia, passed away on June 23d, in his sixty-eighth year. He leaves a wife and four children. The funeral was held at the family home near Onedia, the Rev. H. C. Merrill, of Syracuse, and the Rev. George Lascelle, of St. John's Episcopal Church, Onedia, officiating, on June 26th, with interment in beautiful Glenwood Cemetery. The numerous floral tokens from relatives and friends, both deaf and hearing, bore witness to the esteem in which he was held. He was a graduate of the Rome school and a member of the N. F. S. D.

Evelyn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Carpenter, of Albany, was baptized in St. Paul's Church, Albany, by the Rev. H. C. Merrill, on Sunday, June 24th, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Armstrong and Mrs. Marie Grandy Diot acting as sponsors.

Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Root, of Syracuse, who is minister of the M. E. Church in Webster, N. Y., was married to Miss Louise Schoeneck in Plymouth Congregational Church, Syracuse, on June 27th. After a short trip in a new Oldsmobile car—a gift to the groom from his father-in-law—the couple will reside in Webster.

John H. Thomas, of Utica, is feeling better—a bit chesty, in fact—since he received a substantial increase in pay. Some time ago it was necessary to cut the pay of all employees in the wheel factory where Jack works; but now, with the improvement in business, he gets part of it back, as a recognition of long and faithful service.

The aged mother of Mrs. Grace Rogers Wasse passed to her reward on June 23d, after a long illness, and was buried in Baldwinsville, her former home, on June 26th.

Mary, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ellis, of Cortland, has rejoined her husband in Argentina, whence he was called for military service a short time before Mrs. Ellis' demise.

See you at the N. A. D. Convention in Gotham!

GLEANER.

CHICAGO

"Motor Cavalcade" to the New York NAD abandoned! Present indications are the bunch from this baliwick will leave Chicago Saturday night, July 21st, aboard a Great Eastern bus.

It was originally arranged to leave Friday night, in five or six deaf-driven cars, $20 round trip, stopping Saturday in Akron for a social. This was changed to leave Saturday night, stopping a few hours at the monster Akron-Cleveland picnic at Lake Geauge—midway between those two cities; an overnight stay at a tourist camp somewhere in New York State, and arrive for the opening ceremonies Monday night.

As Manager Meagher explains it—deleting profuse profanity and peppery, pertinent comment: "Local car-owners have spoiled our esteemed citizenry. Accustomed to paying only a few cents each for gas for week-end jaunts, they have been criticizing the $20 round-trip tariff I set. Now the average mileage upkeep on a car is seven cents per mile—which would make the New York trip cost each car around $140. Prorate that among four passengers, it comes to $35 per passenger. So $20 is quite reasonable—inasmuch as the biggest bus-line charges $16 one way. However, our beloved brother Buttinskies—most of whom are not going to the NAD, nor are they Nadders—have been howling 'robber' until their fingers blister. Those dime-a-dozen so-and-sos have my clientele running round in circles. So the private-car plan is abandoned, and the party goes straight thru aboard Great Eastern, booked by Morris Dunn, son of the deaf. However, if any private drivers want to take their friends, there's no law against it."

Chicago boy leaves for Europe—all expenses paid—as a member of the American team to the Polish Olympics, scheduled for Warsaw, Poland, in August! He is John Chudziekwicz, 21, who will be graduated from the Illinois school next June. He competes in the javelin and the shot. He won his place in the recent contests on Soldiers' Field, dressed in a swim-suit and rubber-slippers. Managing Officer Daniel T. Cloud has dug up a full I. S. D. outfit, and the Polish Olympics will see the 188-pound giant wearing the uniform of the Illinois State School for the Deaf!

The cottages of Ma Hyman and Frau Frieda, on the Indiana Dunes, have a brilliant coterie of Gallaudetians. Andrew Hnatow, of Michigan; Konrad Hokanson, of Iowa; Miss Hyman, a June graduate; and two present students, John B. Davis, of Chicago, a Soph, and Miss Catherine Havens, of Pennsylvania, a Senior. Davis and Miss Havens came from college in the $15 Ford, vintage of 1926, that Davis coaxed across the mountains in two days' driving time.

Epidemic of marriages hereabouts. David E. Mudgett, of our Waukegan suburb, is understood to have taken unto himself a wife in Texas, July 1st. Mudgett teaches in our Illinois school. His wife, Miss Grace Davis, taught in Texas. "Will-lie" Myles, the Youngstown, Ohio, sports writer, was married to Miss Gladys Rockney in Cambridge, Wis., June 30th, driving through Chicago on their honeymoon trip to Colorado.

Anyone from outside Chicago contemplating a week's vacation at our city, will do well to start from the 26th of August to Labor Day. On the 26th, which comes on a Sunday, Chicago Division, No. 106, will give its annual picnic—this time on the north side at Lander's Grove, Lincoln Avenue and Oakton Street, Niles Center, Ill. It can be reached by Niles Elevated Local, stopping at Oakton Station and walking two blocks west. An indoor baseball game between No. 1 and No. 106 will be a feature. Other entertainment will include "500," bunco and dancing. It will prove an all-around variety show.

Then comes the triennial convention of the Illinois Association of the Deaf, beginning on the 29th. Also the meeting of the Illinois Alumni at All Angels' Mission for the Deaf, Racine and Leland. In the evening of the same day will be a combination reception of Illinois Alumni and Illinois Association of the Deaf, at the same place. Thenceforth, all business meetings will be called in the mornings of August 30th, 31st and September 1st, at the same location. Entertainments of various kinds are being formulated for afternoons of these dates. One afternoon and evening will be selected for a ride in a chartered boat, date not yet set. Either Friday or Saturday night, the joint smoker of both Chicago Divisions, Nos. 1 and 106, will regale the male members of the N. F. S. D., while the feminine portion will stand at the corner, grabbing their mates as they are thrown out of the smoker. However, plans are being evolved for the feminine benefit that evening. Sunday, September 2d, the deaf may do with themselves as they please—provided that the smoker has not incapacitated them. September 3d, Labor Day, the annual picnic for the benefit of the Illinois Home for the Aged and Infirm Deaf will be staged at Polonia Grove, which will wind up the convention. Between the 26th, the day of No. 106 picnic, and the 29th, the opening day of the convention, these free days can profitably be devoted to the full visit of the World's Fair, as there are 80 miles of sights to cover, and full days are best if one wishes to take a leisurely view in entirety.

Of outstanding interest to the deaf at large, are the following talkies, fully understandable: "Viva Villa," "Tarzan and His Mate," "Wild Cargo," and "Along Came Sally." The last one is of European import, coming from England, and exhibited at the Playhouse, a picture of action and clowning, that reveals how funny the English sense of humor can be. "Wild Cargo" is a ne'er-to-be-forgotten excitement.

Beda Erickson had company from North Dakota, named Miss Blanche Klovstad, of Rhame, N. D. The visitor was at the fair for five days, and went back July 2d.

A letter from Dr. Percival Hall, president of Gallaudet College, Washington, D. C., states that Miss Lorraine Szablewski, of Milwaukee, Alden Ravn, of Delavan, and Anthony Nogosek, of Milwaukee, have passed the college entrance examinations. All are graduates of the Wisconsin School for the Deaf.

A number of the Catholic deaf enjoyed an outing at a place near Elgin, Ill., July 4th. Some of them gathered at the Catholic Deaf Club house from the south side before 9 A.M., and took a truck trip to corner Irving Park and Milwaukee Avenue, to join another truck loaded with the others who came in from the north and west sides. Then the trucks continued on the way to the picnic place.

Mrs. W. Brashar went to Davenport, Ia., Monday, July 2d, in company with her female cousin, who drove her automobile for a month's stay with their folks.

Mrs. Arah Willy, of Davenport, Ia., stopped at the home of Miss Cora Jacob while visiting the World's Fair. She also visited friends. Her husband was killed by an automobile in that city long ago.

The deaf enjoyed themselves on the Fourth of July. Some were taking in the fair and some other amusement places, and the others in a free picnic at the end of Milwaukee Avenue.

T. E. Bray, Superintendent of the Wisconsin deaf school, went to Council Bluffs, Ia., to meet his wife, who stopped off at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Fisher, on her way from Arizona, where she spent some months. After their visit, the Supt. returned to Wisconsin with his wife.

Rev. Hasenstab went to Lake Delavan, Wis., Monday, July 2d, to see his family that was cleaning their summer cottage for their occupancy when Rev. Hasenstab has one month's vacation next August 1st. After that, all will return home next week. He will resume his preaching tour July 10th.

Rev. Rutherford is having one month's vacation. He will take his family to a summer resort in northern Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ursin entertained at their home, a full company of the Reids and Dorens, all from North Dakota, Sunday, July 1st.

SEATTLE

Mrs. Mattie Dortero, long a resident of Seattle, passed away, June 29th, at Harborview Hospital, three days after her removal there. She had been ill with tuberculosis for six years, four of which was spent at Firland Hospital. The funeral took place July 3d at the Howe Undertaking Parlor, under Rev. W. A. Westermann's officiation.

Mrs. Dortero, a devout Christian, was well known and popular. She attended the Minnesota school and moved to Seattle about eighteen years ago. She had many staunch friends, who visited her regularly during her illness. Rev. Westermann sat up all the last night with her. We all extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

A good-natured crowd thronged Ravenna Park, Sunday, June 24th, playing indoor baseball and various races. The picnic dinner, given by the Lutherans, consisted of baked ham, salads, cakes and other delicacies, which Mesdames Ziegler, Gustin, Martin and Miss Anna Kingdon prepared and supervised. J. T. Bodley was chairman. Cash prizes in the races were won by Mrs. Frank Rolph, J. Campbell, and the little boys, not related to each other, George Martin and Billy Martin. Out-of-town visitors were Mrs. Lawrence Belser, of Wenatchee; Miss Wheeler, Portland; Miss Hattie Wardell, Everett; Mrs. Josie Knapp and Edward Anderson, of Bellingham. Everyone was so pleased over the day that they plan another one in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Belser, of Wenatchee, motored to Yakima, June 19th, and visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harris till the next day, when they resumed their trip to Portland. After a couple of days' stay with Miss Wheeler, they came up to Seattle, taking their hostess along. Leaving his wife, baby son and Miss Wheeler with Mrs. Belser's sister here, he drove Mr. and Mrs. Root to Medical Lake to see Walter, their son, who is ill with bronchitis. Mr. Belser is a fast driver, going from Wenatchee to Spokane and back in a day, with two hours at the custodial school.

Rev. Westermann reported at the Lutheran picnic, the safe arrival of Mrs. Westermann and her boys, and about their pleasant trip from Seattle to Nebraska. They will visit all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jack, of Chelalis, came to Seattle one day earlier in order to attend the Lutheran social, held last night under A. W. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Martin and Mrs. Bert Haire. The target game was the most enjoyed and most sought of the other amusements. Story-telling and jokes started the evening, and bridge closed the entertainment with refreshments of a Dutch lunch and raspberries, cake and coffee. Prizes were won by Mrs. Rolph, Sam Schneider, Miss Anna Kingdon, Bert Haire, C. Reeves and S. Abrahamson. The Jacks are staying with the Reeves and Wrights and are going to attend our July 4th picnic.

A good crowd from Seattle went to Tacoma, our sister city, for dinner today, served by the deaf. Needless to say, we had a wonderful time. Those going were Mr. and Mrs. W. E.

Brown, Mrs. E. Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. Haire, Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Miss Dora Haire, Messrs. Garrison, Christenson, Martin and Hood.

June 30th, Mrs. N. C. Garrison and daughter, Betty, took the night boat to Port Angeles, to visit her brother and also to spend a few days with Prof. and Mrs. Hunter at the Hunter's Den. Oscar Sanders, the boys' supervisor of the Vancouver school, is keeping Mr. Garrison company for a week.

Rev. Westermann performed the marriage ceremony of Miss Hattie Wardell and Mr. Arntzen, of Bellingham, at the home of the bride's parents in Everett, Saturday afternoon, June 30th, in the presence of about fifty friends and relatives. Mrs. Neils Boesen, of Tacoma, was maid of honor, while two girl friends were bridesmaids. It was an attractive wedding. The young couple received numerous beautiful and useful presents. The newly-married couple will live in Bellingham. Their many friends wish them the best luck and much happiness in their new venture.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack had the pleasure of Prof. and Mrs. W. S. Hunter's company for a few days as the Hunters and their little son motored from Vancouver, Wash., to Lake Sutherland for the summer. They have a charming cottage there.

Mrs. Frank Rolph had her half-sister from Vancouver, Wash., for a week during her vacation. The girls had lots to say to each other after an absence of some time.

William LaMotte lost his sister through death three weeks ago. She lived in Chicago. Mr. LaMotte is taking Caire Reeves' place at the Reeves' big apartment while Mr. Reeves attends to his five-acre tract near Kent.

On Dads' Day, C. K. McConnell received a beautiful electric clock from his son, Walter. He is still enjoying his books by the Brillo method. At present he is reading Charles Dickens' works.

Ernest Frederickson, of Everett, has purchased a brand-new 1934 Chevrolet sedan. His old one was wrecked by a reckless driver some time ago.

Mrs. Malcolm McRae, of Anacortes, and her two children called on Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Martin a few days ago, and continued their journey to Sumner, where they will stay with Mrs. McRae's brother and help pick berries.

Rev. Westermann was called to Anacortes last Thursday to take charge of the funeral of Abraham Himmelschein, June 28th. The deceased had been ailing for several months, and expired on the 26th. He leaves a widow and four grown children. He was one of the pioneer N. F. S. D., moving from Chicago to Los Angeles, then to Anacortes. Our sympathy goes to the sorrowing family.

It is with regret that the Committee on Foreign Co-operation reports meeting with considerable difficulty in seeking to arrange for the entrance at the Port of New York of foreign delegates to the Convention of the National Association. A bond of $500 is required from such visitors, and thus far all our efforts have failed to have foreign deaf people exempted in order to attend the convention. The Committee has been advised to have the foreign visitors bonded by a bonding company, at a premium; but there are no available funds for that purpose.

This may prevent the admission of Mr. Vilem B. Hauner, foreign Editor of the Czechoslovak deaf, Miss M. Colas, General Secretary of the Salon International des Artistes Silencieux, Paris, France, and several others. The Committee still hopes to have these visitors enter, but the legal requirement appears to block the way.

IN THE issue of the Silent Southerner for June, Mr. J. H. McFarlane announces his retirement from the position of Editor of the paper. He has been the Editor for the past six years, and in that period has done loyal service for the advancement of the Dixie Association of the Deaf.

WITH the gathering of the clans for the Seventeenth Convention of the National Association of the Deaf drawing nigh, we may hope for a large representation of the educated deaf of the country.

Through months of intensive effort the arrangements for the morning business sessions have been completed by the Committee on Program; the afternoons are to be given to sightseeing, and the evenings to social enjoyment, as arranged by the Local Committee. None who may be in attendance at the gathering should overlook the International Exhibition of fine and applied arts by deaf artists, to be held at the Roerich Museum. It forms such a collection as has never before been brought together, and represents the arduous labors and thoughtful oversight of an enthusiastic and very competent committee interested in selected products of deaf artists. The united efforts of these various committees bespeak a week of beneficial discussion of affairs of special interest to the welfare of the deaf, with pleasing sidelights that should meet all tastes—intellectual, artistic, sport-loving inclinations of those who may attend.

In their arrangements for the scope and plan of entertainment the Local Committee has had the laudable co-operation of the societies and clubs of the deaf in New York City and vicinity that have done their part in providing for the entertainment of delegates and other visitors. In the preparations, even were the general economical conditions more promising than they are at present, the arrangements could scarcely be improved upon. The morning sessions, from 9:30 to noon, will be devoted strictly to business affairs; for the afternoon and evenings the Local Committee will see to it that all will have a glimpse of New York City and its numerous means of amusement. Knowing how zealously the Committee is working to assure a pleasant visit for all, we feel confident that the united efforts of the Program, Local and Art Committees will make the Seventeenth Convention of the Association a memorable affair.

North Carolina Bureau of Labor for the Deaf

It is with mixed feelings that I write this letter, a feeling of reluctance lest I appear brazen; and again with a strong and stubborn urge to go ahead in an attempt to accomplish some good for my fellow deaf.

I had been hoping to attend the National Association of the Deaf Convention in New York City this month, but I find that due to low farm produce prices, I cannot make it.

I was, and still am, very desirous of giving a talk before the Association on our Bureau of Labor for the Deaf.

I feel that all States should have such a Bureau, and I firmly believe that I could help a great deal by telling the history of our Bureau, to serve as a warning to other States.

I was the first in the State to start the movement for our Bureau of Labor, and personally talked the matter over with Cameron Morrison, our then Governor; I got him to appear before our State Association of the Deaf, where he pledged his support of such a movement.

I want to tell how it was established; the sorry mistakes at the start; how the Bureau was "weighed in the balance and found wanting;" how it was criticized, condemned, and finally recommended by the State Budget Commission for abolition altogether at the last Legislative session; and later salvaged for another trial; and how the Bureau now, by co-operating with the State School for the Deaf and its superintendent, Dr. E. McK. Goodwin, is making good.

The urge to go to New York and appear before the N. A. D. has grown much stronger since Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt came to Raleigh three weeks ago and gave a good talk to us, mostly women, on National progress and welfare. She admonished us to look to our communities first, and then the State and the Nation, and eventually the world would take care of themselves. Figuratively I took the deaf at large as my "community."

I have always taken a keen interest in education; both public and for the deaf. I have from time to time written articles for the deaf, urging better educational advantages for them.

I have been a member of the Board of Public Education of my district, and was even sent as a delegate from my precinct to the Democratic Convention!

I am, and have been for the last four years secretary of the North Carolina Association of the Deaf.

For the last two sessions of our State Legislature I have been chairman of the N. C. A. D.'s Legislative Committee. I believe I was instrumental in saving our Bureau of Labor for the Deaf.

I was a candidate for the post of director of the Bureau. Lost out, but did not lose my interest. The present director, J. M. Vestal, and a good director, tells me I am his best support.

My one desire in writing this is to help my fellow deaf, especially in getting Bureaus of Labor started in other States. I do not believe there ever was a better time than the present to get busy for that.

MRS. GEO. H. BAILEY.

Los Angeles, Cal.

The Temple Baptist Church's Department for the Deaf had a dinner in the basement dining-room at six o'clock on the evening of June 21st, attended by over sixty persons. The tables were decorated with lovely flowers and lighted candles, so there was quite a festive air. A good meal was served at a nominal price; there have been several of them and we understand they may become a monthly feature. Afterwards all adjourned to the hall on the second floor and more came for the evening service, conducted by hearing speakers, with Mrs. Helen Boyd as interpreter. First there was a hymn by Mr. Tage Samuelson, then an interesting talk by Rev. Pieters, of Glendale Baptist Church, on the subject, "The Bridge Between God and Man." Mrs. Mildred Capt then signed "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer," with piano accompaniment. Supt Lehigh, of the Baptist Sunday School, gave a very good and practical religious talk. Mr. Grieger, choir leader of the Temple Baptist Church, sang two hymns, "My Lord and I," and "I Shall Not Pass This Way Again" with piano accompaniment; at the same time Mrs. Capt rendered them in signs. This is quite slower than the usual conventional way the deaf "sing" them, and gives one more time to grasp the full meaning of the words. Now and then on Thursday nights educational films are shown in this hall, scenes in foreign countries where the Baptist Church has established missions.

Eastern friends will be interested in the news from San Diego, Cal., of the graduation on June 15th, of Miss Betty Grimse from the San Diego State College, when she received her B.A. degree. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grimse and is the first child of deaf parents to graduate from that college. Another daughter of deaf parents, Miss Doris Gledhill, has been attending the same college the last year and a half. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Gledhill, are graduates of Gallaudet College.

Mr. and Mrs. Tage Samuelson and son and daughter left in their car on June 24th for a vacation in the Sequoia National Park. The Samuelsons' fourteen-year-old daughter graduated from the Junior High School on June 21st and next fall will enter Los Angeles High School.

The meeting of the Los Angeles Hebrew Society of the Deaf on June 26th was largely attended. Each person furnished an individual vaudeville act, which was hugely enjoyed by all. Mrs. Joe Greenberg won first and Mr. Jacob Goldstein, the second prize. Mr. I. Pink received honorable mention. Nice refreshments were served after the show.

There was a pleasant surprise party on Mrs. Zach B. Thompson on the afternoon of June 22d, the occasion being her birthday. Her daughter, Mrs. Gesner, and her husband, were away that afternoon. Mrs. S. Himmelschein, who lives in the same block, induced Mrs. Thompson to come to her home early that afternoon; then on some pretext, brought her back, and she was much surprised on opening the door to find the living room filled with her lady friends. After the greetings, she received a number of nice presents and birthday cards. "Five-hundred" furnished the afternoon's diversion, at which first prize was won by Miss Donahoe and second by Mrs. Walton. Mr. Gesner returned in time to help in serving delicious refreshments, and Mr. Thompson just then came back from his visit to the new streamline Rock Island train, which for two days was on exhibition near Exposition Park.

Abe Himmelschein, deaf brother of Simon Himmelschein, died at Anacortes, Wash., on June 26th, no details being given in the telegram received by Simon. He was well known here, as he had lived here before moving to Washington with his family. Abe was educated at the Illinois School for the Deaf. He was married about twenty-four years ago to Miss Josie Wham, an Iowa girl, who survives him with two daughters, both now married. He held certificate No. 59 of the N. F. S. D., was a charter member of the Los Angeles Division and a member of the Seattle Division. Much to his regret, Simon could not go to the funeral.

Mr. Edward Ould and his daughter and family enjoyed attending the "Old Timers Picnic" at Irvine Park, Orange County, on Sunday, June 24th. The Ould family formerly lived on a ranch at Santa Ana, Orange County. This picnic is an annual affair, always well attended. Last year there were 2000 persons present, some of whom came hundreds of miles to attend.

Los Angeles friends were interested to learn of the marriage on June 16th of Mrs. Ruth Mullins, formerly of this city, to Mr. Theodore Helstrom, of Springville, Cal. They were married at Terrabelle and will live on the groom's ranch at Springville.

Announcements were sent out some time ago regarding the Tenth Biennial Convention of the California Association of the Deaf, to be held in San Francisco, August 31st to September 3d, 1934. Business sessions will be held Friday and Saturday. The social side of the convention begins Saturday evening, September 1st, with addresses, reception and a Grand Ball. On Sunday there will be a visit to the Berkeley School for the Deaf and a Bay excursion to the world's largest bridge now under construction, and other points of interest. On Monday, Labor Day, there will be a picnic and barbecue. The headquarters and meetings will be at the San Francisco Club for the Deaf, 530 Valencia Street at 16th Street.

ABRAM HALL.

Up and On

Grandly the stage is set

In this bright center of our silent sphere
For us to seize the glorious now and here
And shape events that years will not forget—
Take up the challenge this great city gives
Our flagging faith for bigger, better things,
A challenge stressed in those superlatives
On which new Gotham's fame so widely wings.

With stately pile on pile

Her magic structures dip the skies

And tell in endless file

Live tales that light our listening eyes—
Of stroke on stroke by many a master hand
Until this wonder of our wondrous land,
This urban miracle was wrought
Of bold, dynamic thought.

So sprang our N. A. D.

Of faith that triumphed for a noble cause
In many a deed that gives us thoughtful pause

As here we vision things that ought to be,
A faith heroic put us in the van

Of world-wide, gesture-speaking brotherhood;

Won us the rights of fully franchised man,
And rank, scholastic tyranny withstood.

Our watchword, Up and On—

For us no listless falling back

On glory long ago—

Wrongs loudly call for an attack.

The misty prejudice gives way to light;
Our schools shall yet be free from faddists' blight.

We'll have another jubilee

With a grander N. A. D.

J. H. McFARLANE.

BOSTON

The St. Andrew Mission Guild celebrated their fourth birthday on June 27th by having a supper and social. It proved, as usual, to be a financial and social success. The Guild will now be able to rest for the summer, with the exception, perhaps, of their mystery outing, possibly on the last Sunday of July.

The engagement of Miss Elvira Freda to Mr. Fred Graham has been announced.

Mrs. George Hull, of Arlington, sprang quite a surprise on her contract bridge club by entertaining them at the Old House, Lexington, one of the historical places in Massachusetts. A de luxe dinner was served, prior to the playing of games, in a room reserved for her group. An added surprise was that of receiving a small bottle of perfume with their initials engraved on the same. Ere disbanding for the summer, the high bridge score-holders were Mrs. Hull and Mrs. Gill.

Among the Bostonians who attended the N. F. S. D. No. 63, dance in the El Patio, Hotel Clinton, Springfield, Mass., on May 26th, were Misses Ruth Sanger, Frances Gibbons, Ruth Hayward, Minnie Molinsky, and Etta Wilson, and Messrs. William Zukowski, Francis Coleman, Robert McCarthy, Edward Legson, and Lawrence Harris. Everyone agrees that the affair was a most pleasant one. The co-chairmen were Messrs. Harold Whitehouse and Russell Cosby. Credit should be given them, they being amateurs.

Mr. Max Drammin, of Springfield, Mass., and Miss Marion Lillienstein, of Springfield, Ill., were married in Illinois on September 10th, and took their honeymoon at the World's Fair, where they first became acquainted. They are now residing in Holyoke, Mass., where Max is employed. Our heartiest congratulations are extended to the happy couple.

NEW YORK CONVENTION

JULY 23 - 28
1934

One of the high lights of the Convention will be the elaborate Banquet and Entertainment in the Grand Ball Room of the Hotel Pennsylvania on Thursday evening, July 26th. The youth, the beauty, the vivacity, and the charm of deafdom will enhance the occasion. And you certainly will not want to miss it.

Friday afternoon, the 27th, we go on a specially guided Tour of New York's latest wonder development—the Rockefeller Center. There we will also be whiffed up to the Observation Roof, atop the 70th story, where an unobstructed view of the City for a radius of 50 miles will spread before our admiring gaze.

During the evening, while the Frats are disporting themselves at a "Giant Smoker" behind locked doors, the ladies will be entertained at a Card Party and Movie Show.

Finally, on Saturday, July 28th, comes the All-Day Outing to Indian Point, up the Hudson—one of the world's grandest, most romantic and historic rivers. There will be fun afloat, and lots to do ashore.

In reply to a distant correspondent who makes anxious inquiry regarding "food" in New York City, I can do no better than quote the inimitable Heywood Brown:—

Residents of New York ought to appreciate their luck. It has been frequently said that the metropolis is not American in any true sense, but a conglomeration of cosmopolites. Fortunately that is true of our restaurants. From the great and elaborate places down to the all-night wagons New York leads the nation in the matter of the skillful preparation of food. At the most obscure lunchroom it is possible to get a steak which would be the envy of Chicago or Kansas City.

And cheap in price, too; at least no more than you are now paying in your own city.

Come. We shall be looking for you.

MARCUS L. KENNER, Chairman.

N. A. D. Bridge, Chess and Golf Tournaments

Arrangements are complete for the Bridge, Chess and Golf Tournaments to be run during Convention Week.

The Bridge tourney will be under the direction of Mr. Emerson Romero, a recognized expert with many years' experience in national and sectional championships.

There will be two sections, one for duplicate contract and the other for auction players. Silver trophies will be awarded; individual cups to each winning pair, and a special cup to the team representing one city.

The tourney gets under way Tuesday evening. Should there be a large entry list in duplicate contract, there will be two or more sections on Tuesday, with the winning pairs of each section battling it out in the finals on Thursday afternoon. Auction contract title will be settled under the same conditions.

As the entry list is limited, it is urged that those desiring to participate forward their entries immediately. Entry blank will be found attached to the Bridge advertisement in this issue of the JOURNAL. Entry fee is $1.00 per player.

The Official Boosters have been supplied with additional entry blanks. See them.

The Chess tournament will get under way Tuesday evening, also; the conditions calling for each player to meet every other player. A small entry fee will be charged. Play will be under the direction of Mr. James T. Garrick and Mr. Frank E. Font, with Mr. Culver Carpenter acting in an advisory capacity. Trophy to the winner of the championship.

The Golf championship of the deaf will be decided on Friday afternoon over one of the most beautiful courses in the Metropolitan area. The director is Mr. J. P. Radcliffe, whose experience in tournament golf qualifies him for the post. Entrants to furnish own clubs and balls, and to pay green fees of not more than $1.00 each. Medals to winner and runner-up. Play will be on a handicap basis, with the director having absolute control at all times. Rules of the U. S. G. A. to govern.

JOHN N. FUNK,
General Chairman.

1913 Fowler Ave.,
N. Y. City.

The Sidewalks of New York

East side, west side,
All around our town—
The local Nads are staging fads
To mow our shekels down;
They're playing tag
And never lag
To dent our hard earned roll,
For every cent is to be spent—
To give the Nads a stroll.

East side, west side,
Up above our town—
Up Empire State, where Al the great
Greets us with derby, brown;
We'll see the shore
From Al Smith's door
Amid the clouds you'll roam,
We'll see the tots Manhattan dots—
Below this famous dome.

East side, west side,
Underground our town—
When Gotham rains, its subway trains
Are crowded up and down;
The Times square crowd
Is mighty rowd
You're shoved till you are sore,
And make you mad, but surely glad
To squeeze inside their door.

East side, west side,
All about our town—
We'll show our guest what they may quest
And nothing we will frown;
Our east side slums
Where low brow bums
Are mostly down and out;
Where west side hums to night club drums
And high brows bum about.

East side, west side,
New York, of renown—
Welcomes Nads, their girls and lads,
To convene in their town;
We'll strike the band
And sing by hand—
Our dailies will uncork:
"The deaf can blare the famous air—
The Sidewalks of New York."

MAX M. LUBIN.

PENNSYLVANIA

A very pretty wedding occurred on Saturday, June 30th, when Iva Bella Sensering was united in marriage to Richard Logan LeVan. The ceremony was performed in the home of the bride, at Lancaster, and took place in the evening at 7:30 P.M. The Rev. Warren M. Smaltz officiated.

Following the ceremony, an excellent collation was served to the guests present. Because the wedding was private, and entirely unannounced to all but a few friends, the number of guests was limited. Those present included, besides the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Myers, Mrs. Clara McCue, and Miss Florence Lacy, all of Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, and Mr. Paul Tucker, all of Endicott, N. Y.; Mr. Raymond Schaeffer, of Pottstown; and the Rev. and Mrs. Warren M. Smaltz, of Lebanon.

A three-pound wedding cake with unusually pretty ornamentation was carved with suitable ceremony by the bride. After the collation, Mr. John C. Myers entertained those present with some of his inimitable tricks of comic legerdemain, and a very pleasant evening followed. The bride wore a gown of coral crepe, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Following the church services of the silent mission next day, the entire wedding party, with the addition of Miss Esther Heller, of Lancaster, repaired to the bride's home for luncheon. Later the same day, the bridal couple motored to Endicott, N. Y., where the groom is employed in the painting department of Endicott-Johnson Shoe Company. They will probably make their future residence at Endicott.

The Misses Reba and Gladys Rowe, of Lancaster, accompanied by their father, Mr. J. M. Rowe, and an aunt, Mrs. Lottis Brubaker, were guests of their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stites, at Millersburg, over Memorial Day. Besides his regular employment in a local steel mill, Mr. Stites also does barbering as a side line, in his spare time.

Summoned to Fayetteville, N. C., because of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. James H. Buterbaugh, of Altoona, reached there in time to beat the bedside when her mother passed away on June 25th. She was 84 years old. Mrs. Buterbaugh has the sympathy of numerous friends in her bereavement.

The condition of Lloyd Sommer of Lancaster is much improved. He is a patient at Dr. Crandall's Health School, located about two miles east of York. It is an osteopathic institution. On Sunday, July 1st, he was visited by the Rev. Warren Smaltz, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fauth, and Mrs. Hugh Boyd. Mr. Sommer will probably remain at this hospital for some time longer, before being discharged as cured.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Mosby, of Philadelphia, are now at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Eby, of Lebanon, have moved to Myerstown. Mr. Eby is now nearer his place of employment, with the Albert Bros. Bakery.

Ellen, the charming five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Cusack of Philadelphia, has been spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Smith at Shenandoah. And her blonde curls and cheery smile sure do go a long way towards lighting up that coal town!

Deaf Pennsylvanians are nothing if not picnic lovers. Each year the great Hershey picnic opens the season. Then, in quick succession, regional picnics occur. On July 15th the Reading picnic will be held in Luden Park. And Pottsville will have its annual affair on the same date, at White City Park. In due time, Hazleton, Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, Allentown, and other localities will follow suit.

OHIO

A Cincinnati paper writer claims that Everett Rattan, the deaf wrestler, to be the junior middleweight champion of the world. Rattan is spending the summer at Buckeye Lake, not many miles from Columbus, and it is there he does most of his training. He rows eight or ten miles on the lake twice a day and does plenty of wrestling, too. He won the junior middleweight from Thom a month ago, but, according to a Columbus paper, there is some dispute over that yet, and Thom's coach refuses to give up the title belt. He defeated Thom in a bout at Cincinnati, and all hope his claim to championship will be recognized by the fans.

The Sunday Columbus Dispatch of July 1st announces the marriage of Mrs. Violet Sharp Jackson, a teacher at the Ohio school, to Mr. Calvin Cool, of Washington, D. C., on June 16th. Mr. Cool is employed in the United States treasury department, and at present has charge of the new federal building in Columbus. The couple took a trip to Montreal and Quebec, and will make their home in Columbus till the new federal building is finished.

This is the first July 4th for several years that the Columbus deaf have had no picnic at the Ohio Home, and we suspect the day will be a quiet one for the residents, but they still have the recent reunion gathering to talk over, and the Frats will have a picnic there Labor Day.

When Mrs. William E. Chapman, former matron of the Ohio Home, recently visited there she was quite pleased to see the new card over the hospital which told that the room is now under the care of the Columbus Ladies' Aid Society, in memory of the late Cloa Lamson and her mother. Mrs. Chapman said that she greatly appreciated what the society had done in memory of her sister.

Miss Edwina Woolley, who recently graduated from the University of Cincinnati, is now tutoring a small defective child in reading and is accomplishing good work, although it is her first experience. She is the daughter of Mrs. Hannah Ranz Woolley, a graduate of the Ohio school.

Miss Bessie Lawson, supervisor of the girls at the Ohio school, is now at Butler, Ky., with her cousin, Mrs. Cowles, and from reports, loafing and good food are making her gain in weight and feeling better after her strenuous life at the school, taking care of two hundred girls three or four times a day.

Miss Lawson was a week-end guest of Miss Katherine Toskey in Cincinnati, and July 1st, they with a friend motored to Covington to attend the Kentucky picnic for the benefit of the proposed Kentucky Home. They found the picnic well attended and the deaf of Cincinnati turned out to swell the crowd. There has always been shown a spirit of good-will between the Ohio and the Kentucky deaf. The day was a good hot one and yet the young folks enjoyed dancing and the men had a ball game.

The next attraction for the Columbus deaf is the chicken dinner to be served August 25th, for the benefit of the Home laundry fund, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Neutzling. This is sponsored by one of the twigs of the Columbus Ladies' Aid Society.

The Columbus Ladies' Aid Society holds no meetings during the summer months, but plans are going ahead for the annual fall social, under the direction of Mrs. Winemiller, Mrs. Ohlemacher, Mrs. Shafer, Mrs. B. Cook and Miss Dix. Their plans and committees will be given out later.

Rev. F. Smielau's friends were much surprised upon meeting him at the reunion to note how much good Florida had done him. He gave a few vigorous talks showing that he was much stronger, too. From reports he is to locate in the fall at Tampa, Fla. While in Ohio, he was presented with a fine fishing outfit from friends and this he truly appreciated.

HAMILTON, ONT.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell and Mr. Averall and son, Joffre, motored to Hamilton on Friday, June 29th, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taylor overnight. About fifteen of the deaf gathered at the Taylor's hospitable home on the same evening, and while the euchre enthusiasts made up two tables, the others chatted and enjoyed the coolness of the evening, and admired Mr. Taylor's well-kept garden. Mr. Averall's son will probably return to Belleville in September to take the High School course.

Some of the deaf held an informal picnic on Dominion Day, in the mountain park and had an enjoyable time and all felt the better of the hours spent in the fine, clear air of the mountain top.

GENERAL NEWS

We regret to report the death, on June 20th, of Mr. McKenzie, of Aurora, Ont. Mr. McKenzie had a fall some time ago, sustaining injury to his leg, from which blood-poisoning developed. The deceased was well-known and much respected in Aurora, and his funeral was very largely attended. Practically all the employees of the shoe factory, in which he had worked for thirty years, were present. About sixteen deaf friends also attended the funeral, among those present were Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Whealey, Mr. and Mrs. Reeves and Mr. and Mrs. Terrell, of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Bell and Mr. Averall, of Cookstown.

The Hamilton Association of the Deaf wish to express their sincere sympathy for Mrs. McKenzie and family in their bereavement, and also for Mrs. Braithwaite, of Windsor, on the death of her daughter, Marion, on June 22d.

We also regret to report the death of James Edward Farrance, in his twenty-first year, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Farrance, of Peterboro, Ont. The youth was admitted to Nicholl's Hospital, Peterboro, two days previous to his death, on June 20th, suffering from an unusual type of muscular stiffness. The condition was at first thought to have resulted from an accidental blow on the neck, received recently at the Ontario School for the Deaf, Belleville. An autopsy was performed and is believed to have disproved the theory that death was attributable to a blow. Mr. Farrance's friends here were very sorry to learn of his early death, and sympathize with his parents and other relatives.

KITCHENER, ONT.

Rev. Georg Almo was with us on the 24th of June and gave us a beautiful sermon, one that we will not soon forget, but we regret deeply that it is his last sermon here. Mrs. L. B. Moynihan gracefully rendered the beautiful hymn, "Nearer and Nearer to God I Daily Go." After the service Mrs. Moynihan made a farewell address for Rev. Mr. Almo, telling of his future position as dictator of religion, recently offered him in Philadelphia, Penna. Mrs. Moynihan went on to say that it was not a high position Rev. Almo was seeking, but one where he could feel he was serving God and teaching others to do the same. To serve God, we must live honorably and live as Christians, following Christ. There was a large attendance at the service, and a number of the deaf gathered at the bus station to see Rev. Almo off.

Stanley Nahrgang, the eldest son of Mr. Allen Nahrgang, is seriously ill in the K. and W. Hospital. His aunt, Mrs. George Elliott, and his two deaf brothers, who have been visiting her, came to Kitchener on June 23d to see Stanley. While in the city Mrs. Elliott was the guest of her friend Mrs. Moynihan, and also relatives.

Mr. Allen Nahrgang and his two deaf sons are boarding at the Williams home on Rose Street.

Among the deaf who attended our service were Mr. and Mrs. William Quinlan and children, of Stratford; Mr. and Mrs. George Bassler, of Hesson; Miss Frances Keeney, of Acton; Miss Mary McQueen, of Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Isiah Nahrgang, of Speedville; and nearly all the deaf from Galt.

Mr. Absalom Martin is doing nicely, so we can easily say:

"Humpty Dumpty had a fall.
All the king's horses
And all the king's men
Could put Humpty Dumpty together again."

Syracuse, N. Y.

On June 27th, at the Plymouth Congregational Church in Syracuse, Rev. Robert Root, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Root, was united in marriage to Miss Louise Schoeneck, who is among the prominent younger social set in Syracuse. The service was a very beautiful and impressive affair, with four bridesmaids gowned in salmon pink mousseline de soi, and the maid of honor wearing pale blue. The bride wore a white satin gown with a long train, and a veil trimmed with orange blossoms. Mrs. Glenn MacRae, youngest sister of the groom, was one of the bridesmaids, and a brother-in-law was one of the ushers. A Methodist minister, Rev. H. Downey, of Honey Falls, assisted the local minister with the service, and two young ministers were ushers. A reception followed the ceremony, and a luncheon was served to some sixty relatives at the Onondaga Hotel. The happy pair have gone on a honeymoon motor trip of two weeks, comprising Lake Placid, Maine, Boston and Rhode Island, after which they will spend two weeks in New York City, where Rev. Root will take a two weeks' course in church work at the Union Theological Seminary, 3401 Broadway.

One of the gifts to the bride was a fine new Oldsmobile car, from her father, and a handsome check. After August 1st, the couple will be at the Methodist parsonage in Webster, N. Y.

On June 23d, the aged mother of Mrs. Grace Wasse died after four months' illness from cancer of the stomach. She was 82 years old. The remains were taken to Baldwinsville and interred in the family plot. The numerous beautiful floral offerings attested to the high esteem in which she was held. Mrs. Wasse had been attending her mother night and day, and had been tireless in caring for her. She has the sincerest sympathy of all the deaf in the loss of her mother.

Misses Frances Brown, Mary Locke and Cynthia Ackereman have returned to Syracuse to spend the summer with their parents. The Locke family will spend some time at a camp near Otisco Lake, and the Ackerman family will have a summer camp on Seneca River. The Pabst and J. F. Keller families are at their camp near Baldwinsville.

Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Merrill returned on June 25th from a two-weeks trip to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Grace Wasse and daughter, of Little Falls, have gone to Big Moose, in the Adirondacks, to spend several weeks, and give Mrs. Wasse a chance to recuperate from the strenuous task of nursing her invalid mother, who died recently.

Get a Certificate

Read Carefully

VERY IMPORTANT TO THOSE WHO WISH REDUCED FARES TO THE
N. A. D. CONVENTION

A concession of one and one-third fare on the "Certificate Plan" will apply for members and dependent members of their families attending the meeting of the National Association of the Deaf, to be held at Hotel Pennsylvania, New York, N. Y., July 23d-28th, 1934, and these arrangements will apply from territories of the Central Passenger and Trunk Line Associations.

The following directions are submitted for your guidance:

1. Tickets at the regular one-way tariff fare for the going journey must be obtained on any of the following dates (but not on any other date) July 19th to 25th inclusive. Be sure that, when purchasing your going ticket, you request a Certificate Plan CERTIFICATE from ticket agent. Do not make the mistake of asking for a "receipt."

2. Present yourself at the railroad station for ticket and certificate at least thirty minutes before departure of train on which you begin your journey.

3. Certificates are not kept at all stations. It is suggested that you inquire at your home station and ascertain whether or not agent can issue through ticket and certificate to place of meeting. If not, the agent will inform you of the nearest station at which they can be obtained. In such case, you should purchase a local ticket to the station which has certificates in stock and from there buy a through ticket to place of meeting and at the same time ask for and secure a "Certificate Plan Certificate."

4. Immediately on your arrival at the meeting, present your certificate to the endorsing officer, Mr. F. A. Moore, Secretary-Treasurer, as the reduced fare for the return journey will not apply unless the certificate is properly endorsed by him and validated by a Railroad Special Agent as provided for by the certificate.

5. Arrangements have been made for validation of certificates by a Special Agent of the carriers on July 25th to 28th, inclusive, provided such certificates, or a combination of such certificates and round-trip tickets, held by members of the organization and dependent members of their families, issued under following conditions, aggregate not less than 100.

Certificates showing the purchase of one-way tickets on authorized dates of sale and from authorized territory from which the one-way adult tariff fare is 75 cents or more.

Round-trip excursion tickets of all classes, including round-trip Clergy tickets, sold prior to or on dates of sale authorized for the convention from points from which the one-way adult fare to place of meeting is $2.00 or more.

Certificates or tickets issued for children of half-fare age to be counted the same as adult certificates or tickets.

6. No refund of fare will be made because of failure to obtain a proper certificate when purchasing going ticket.

7. To prevent disappointment, it should be understood that the reduction on the return journey is not guaranteed, but is contingent on an attendance at the meeting of not less than 100 members of the organizations and dependent members of their families, holding certificates, or a combination of certificates and round-trip tickets as explained above.

8. If the necessary minimum of 100 certificates, or a combination of certiates and round-trip tickets aggregating 100 (as outlined above) is presented at the meeting and your certificate is duly validated by the Special Agent, you will be entitled, up to and including August 1st, 1934, to purchase a return ticket via the same route over which you made the going journey, at one-third of the regular one-way tariff fare from the place of meeting to the point at which your certificate was issued.

9. Tickets so purchased will be good for return passage to reach original starting point within 30 days in addition to date of sale of going ticket, as shown on the certificate.

Bridge Championships are Here Now!

Through the ardent and patient efforts of Mr. Emerson Romero, Contract Bridge has taken a firm hold on the deaf. Prior to last November 16th, to be exact, Contract Bridge was played by only a handful of deaf people in the metropolitan section, and Duplicate was never even heard of.

Mr. Romero started the Dactyl Club at the Hotel Beacon last fall and had regular weekly meetings. The game of Duplicate Contract proved so popular, that after the final session of the Dactyl Club, the Deaf-Mutes Union League started a shorter tourney of their own and acquired Mr. Romero's services to act as the Director. This met with marked success, and a large attendance turned out every week.

Mr. John N. Funk was aware of the growing popularity of Duplicate Contract among the deaf and promptly hired Mr. Romero to direct the N. A. D. tourney at the Hotel Pennsylvania on Tuesday evening, July 24th, at 7:30 P.M.

Mr. Romero has devoted a great deal of his time to teach the numerous deaf people who wanted to learn to play this new, fascinating game which had taken the hearing world by storm. He has given the deaf the benefits of his experience with well-known hearing players and in his two years of actual competition around the Metropolitan district in tourney, has won about twenty-two cups, trophies, etc.

At first Mr. Romero had some difficulty teaching the deaf because of his inability to converse in the sign-language, although he has been stone-deaf since the age of six. He had been brought up in the hearing world, having attending hearing schools and is a graduate of Lafayette College. His ability to read the lips and his almost perfect speech has enabled him to hold his own with the hearing and he has been with the Federal Reserve Bank of New York for seven years. He is a Junior Statistician in the Statistical Department.

Seeing that he was unable to help the deaf master the game because of his own inability to use the signs, Mr. Romero promptly set to work learning all the signs that were necessary at first. Later on with the help of friends and lip readers he was able to master the signs to a fairly advanced stage, where he could make himself understood. He has conducted several private classes for the more enthusiastic devotees of the game, and has made some very good progress with his pupils. He has also written a series of lessons on Contract for those who found it inconvenient or impossible to attend his classes.

It is hoped that the tournament will be a great success and that the game will grow in popularity among the deaf. Mr. Romero will endeavor to hold annual Bridge Tourneys, but first he wants to see what response the deaf make to the coming tourney.

There will, of course, be a special section for those who wish to play Auction as this primary to Contract is still popular among the deaf.

For any information re the tourney, write to Mr. Romero, whose address will be found in the advertisement.
